

2010 Distinguished Alumnus of the Year Award

SELECTION CRITERIA

Nominations for the Distinguished Alumnus of the Year Award are bestowed upon an LASO, LACO or Southern California College of Optometry graduate in recognition of service to the College, the Profession and the Community. The selection committee is composed of the last three recipients of the award, with Dr. Wiley Curtis serving as Chairperson. The Distinguished Alumnus of the Year award will be presented at commencement on May 21, 2010.

If you know of an Alumnus who fulfills the criteria for this prestigious award, please complete the nomination form and submit to: Office of Alumni Relations, 2575 Yorba Linda Blvd., Fullerton, CA 92831; Fax 714.992.7855; Email alumni@scco.edu. All submissions must be received by the Office of Alumni Relations by 5:00 PM Friday, April 30, 2010.

CRITERION #1:

Service to the College should carry the most weight in the selection process. 50%

A profession advances or declines with the quality and strength of its educational institutions. A forthright commitment through volunteer leadership and professional involvement locally and/or nationally that enhances the status of the profession and the Southern California College of Optometry is crucial.

CRITERION #2:

Service to and leadership in organized optometry 25%

An alert, active professional association is the only protection and safeguard for the independence of the profession.

CRITERION #3:

Achievement in community service 25%

Public relations play a vital role in the practice of a profession.
